personal, quality and exclusivity!*

Welcome

This is our team.

Stompiesland Lodge is set deep within the breathtaking Cape mountains in the Eastern Cape of South Africa. Nico Lourens the owner of Stompiesland Safaris has more than 40 years of experience in the African hunting industry and is well known in the hunting fraternity for exceptionally high quality of hunting trophies he has taken over the years. Now Nico and Leana Lourens would like to invite you to their “little peace of heaven”. A place we call home and where we offer you and your family an unforgettable experience.

Tim Hoarle was born and raised into a hunting and fishing family in New Jersey. He began a career in law enforcement in 1997 and was fortunate enough to retire 20 years later. An avid hunter who has taken big game in six countries with many more adventures to come. In 2020 Tim Hoarle made his first trip to the dark continent and was hooked for life. Now with more than 15 trips to Africa, he joined the Stompiesland family as our U.S. representative in 2019. As many of our clients can attest, Tim Hoarle works tirelessly with our clients to ensure that their safari is a hunt of a lifetime.

Stompiesland Lodge

Our main camp is located a short one-hour drive north of the beautiful seaside community of Port Elizabeth. You will fly into and clear customs in Johannesburg and then connect on a flight to Port Elizabeth. Our lodge is set deep within the breathtaking Cape mountains. Luxury Chalets that sleeps 2 people with en-suite bathrooms.

Meals are served three times daily. We customize meals to the client's particular tastes, but the vast majority of our clients wish to try some of the game bagged on Safari.

At night you will sit around the campfire with a cocktail or try some of the best South African wines and beers.

Laundry will be done daily.

Depending on the game you have on your wish list, we may overnight at some of our hunting destinations if travel is necessary. We utilize some of the most comfortable and scenic camps in the country. No matter where we hunt, a comfortable camp and hot meal will be waiting for you at the end of the day.
